

Gayle Reid

ASSOCIATE PARTNER

Accounting & Business Advisory

Gayle joined BG Private as an Associate Partner in 2002 after more than 20 years at Melbourne firm Mann Judd.

During her 45-year career, Gayle has gained considerable expertise in tax and accounting across a range of industries and client types giving her the ability to assist clients with anything they need help with.

She is a highly trusted and experienced practitioner. Easy to get along with, approachable and direct, clients feel comfortable in turning to her with any questions or concerns they have.

Gayle's efficiency and experience in tax compliance matters ensures clients feel comfortable that their obligations are being met. She adds value to this process with her attention to detail, ensuring that nothing is missed. She is someone who can review a set of accounts and easily identify issues.

Above all, Gayle has impeccable integrity, and her clients entrust her with ensuring their financial affairs are in order.

To that end, her skills have earned her a loyal and impressive client base. A high proportion of them are high-net-worth individuals and SMEs, giving her unique insights into the challenges they face. She plays an important role in helping them make the most of opportunities and reducing their exposure to risk.
