How we help

We know that business owners juggle a lot, so we aim to take the pressure off. We will take care of the accounting side of things, becoming a trusted partner who is invested in your long-term success. Having worked with hundreds of businesses over the years, we can leverage this knowledge to your advantage, helping to improve processes, strategy and outcomes.

Working with BG has been like having our own dedicated accounting team on call. Their expertise and attention to detail has been unparalleled.

Why choose us

We're good at what we do

We have been accountants since 1978 and are an AFR Top 100 Accounting Firm. We have significant experience with regard to the challenges businesses face and the drivers that achieve increased profits.

We're like you

We find clients prefer to work with someone in a similar life stage to them. We have accountants and advisors of all ages and backgrounds, so you'll find someone you gel with. In addition, all our Partners are fellow business owners, meaning we know first-hand the support you need to achieve commercial success.

We're empathetic

We place top priority on client relationships, and our clients feel they can turn to us during the highs and lows. A testament to this is that many clients have been with us for years (some even decades).

We're just the right size

We are small enough to know each of our clients personally, but we are also big enough to offer the depth and breadth of expertise your business needs.

We're responsive

We know how frustrating it is when you don't get a timely answer to questions, so one of the core expectations from our staff is quick and accurate responses to emails and phone calls.

We offer integrated advice

Your business gets the best results when experts from different disciplines look at your situation from every angle. Our size and structure mean we collaborate easily across our services lines, including Tax Advisory, SMSF Management, Audit & Assurance, Corporate Advisory, and Private Equity.

We're proactive

We pride ourselves on being alert to opportunities, and proactively reaching out to clients with value-add insights and recommendations.

We offer reassurance

You will have peace of mind knowing that your accounting and tax matters are in hand, and that you have an experienced advisor on call who can help you achieve your business goals.

For Today, Tomorrow & Beyond.
