

BG Private's Audit & Assurance division prides itself on its friendly engagement with clients. With deep technical knowledge, we are committed to collaborating with you to identify improvements that lead to better outcomes.

Who we help

- Large companies or other entities needing an audit signoff including listed companies
- NFPs
- Trust accounts (including solicitors, real estate agents, conveyancers, accountants and travel agents)
- Local subsidiaries of overseas parent companies
- AFS Licensees (including insurance brokers, investment firms)
- Incorporated associations, RSLs and clubs
- Significant global entities (SGEs)
- SMSFs
- Franchise marketing fund and solvency audits
- RTOs, schools and colleges
- Aged care entities including prudential compliance review
- Owners' Corporations

How we can help

- ✓ Ensuring your organisation's compliance in line with ASIC or other regulatory requirements
- ✓ Empowering your team with education around best practices and accounting standards
- ✓ Working with you year-round (not just during the annual audit) to ensure you are set up for success
- ✓ Increasing your reporting accuracy to ensure better business decisions can be made
- ✓ Reviewing your mid-year financial reports if required, to prevent any surprises at year end
- ✓ Sharing our knowledge to recognise potential issues, and then helping you mitigate them
- ✓ Taking a friendly and flexible approach, to ensure the audit process is tailored to your individual business situation and risk profile

Our approach to audits

Although we are independent, we don't see ourselves as an external party who simply advises you when things are wrong. Rather we partner you to make improvements. We dig deeper to understand your industry, business dynamics and goals – knowing that by working as partners, we can help your business be stronger and more successful.

BG has been professional and timely in their work and we would have no hesitation in recommending them to anyone looking for a professional accounting and auditing firm in Australia

Why choose us

- We are available and responsive year-round – so you can turn to us at any time
